LADY GALALA

Lady Galala è nata durante una riunione sotto una tenda nel deserto montagnoso di Sokhna, progettando i ristoranti sul mare e le residenze de “Il Monte Galala”, la città turistica e residenziale che abbiamo progettato e costruito. È immaginata appena mossa dal vento, in un sogno di colori e di allegria, montata e appesa più o meno casualmente, per una serata di shisha, tè, caffè turco, o per un Iftar dopo il tramonto di un giorno di Ramandan. Si può montare in varie combinazioni con semplicità. Come un gioco per bambini. E nei vari montaggi assume il volto orientale, quello mediorientale, quello africano, quello mediterraneo, e infine quello di casa nostra. Una madeleine di luce e di leggerezza.

Lady Galala was born during a meeting under a tent in the mountainous desert of Sokhna, while we were planning the seaside restaurants and residences of “Mount Galala”, the tourist and residential city we designed and built. It is imagined just moved by the wind, in a dream of colours and joy, mounted and hung more or less randomly, for an evening of shisha, tea, Turkish coffee, or for an Iftar after sunset on a Ramadan day. It can be easily assembled in various combinations. Like a children’s toy. And in the various assemblies it assumes the face of the East, the Middle East, Africa, the Mediterranean and finally our own. A madeleine of light and lightness.
